The Learning Commons

The Learning Commons includes all academic support services including the Library, the Academic Center for Excellence (ACE), and the Advisement Center.
Print Collections
The library collection includes over 73,000 items.

The Browsing section contains popular novels and movies.

The library subscribes to many local and national newspapers, popular magazines, and academic journals.

The Ehrlich Military History Collection contains books and media items related to military history.

Additional Services
For more information on library resources, please visit ega.libguides.com

Research Assistance
Services are available via email, chat, phone, or in-person during business hours.

GIL Express
Borrow books not available at EGSC.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL):
Request materials not available through GIL Express.
http://ega.libguides.com/gilexpressandill

GALILEO
Find articles, books, media, and more.
http://www.galileo.usg.edu/

Facilities
• 4 group study rooms
• 2 classrooms
• More than 20 computers
• Printers
• Designated quiet study spaces
• The Heritage Center which contains information about the history of Georgia, Emanuel County, and EGSC.
http://ega.libguides.com/heritagecenter